MEN'S GOLF

The 2008 golf season ended in spectacular fashion, as we were again crowned champions in Region 14 and in the 2A classification. The players fought through adversity at the tough Gold course, at Soldier Hollow Golf Course to bring home another state title. Senior Nic Jobs shot a team leading 76 in the final round to place fourth at state and help secure the victory. Carson Huiskamp finished as the second medalist in 2A, with Joey Polychronis and Eric Hutchinson tying for fifth place. Tom Veghte and Quentin Morse also finished in the top nine.

CROSS COUNTRY

This years' cross country team was great. The whole team cut minntes off their times from last year. The team ran fabulously at region and took second, placing 5 varisty runners in the top 10. The team's fastest runner, Nathan Zick-Smith, finished second at region, with a time of 17:12. At state, the varsity squad of Nathan Zick-Smith, Alex Edgley, Johnny Gilbert, Andy Gilbert, Taylor Hollen, Chris Snndquist, and Brooks Hall, didn't have the race they would have liked, bnt still made long strides to improve on last years' times. The team had a strong group of new runners join the squad this year, and our seniors Taylor and Alex had an exceptional last season and led the team well.

All too often, as we applaud the productions of our Rowland Hall theatre, we neglect to praise the Stage Crew. They make the plays and concerts run smoothly and efficiently. They discreetly and quickly remove old scenery and replace it with new scenery. They set the stage for all our talented actors. What we don't see is their hard work actually constructing the scenery, everyday during second period in the Larimer Center. Now is our chance to appreciate their efforts.

This year Amnesty International, headed by Shelley Miller (President) and Rachel Kohan (Vice President), worked with members to write letters to free prisoners of conscience. These people have been imprisoned around the world on the basis of their religion, political views, sexual orientation, or some type of subtle opposition, and the club used functions like Holiday Card Action to get as many cards written in order to free the prisoners.

Right: Vice President Rachel Kohan and Erin Lence showcase the card and packet used to write letters to prisoners.

The Asian Culture Club (ACC) is mostly a cooking club, in which delicious traditional Chinese dishes are cooked. For those who have little knowledge of asian cuisine, President Lydia is there to educate, lead, and inspire. The clubs members include: Emma Van Burns, Manon Gilmore, Noelani Blueford, McCall Moody, Danelle Devine, Harl Crompton, Jackson Gardner, Matthew Whitby, Patrick Gilmore, Hannah Zhou, Hannah Grunwald, Laurel Blackman, Max Interact is Rotary International's service club for high schoolers. The cause this year to support is Safe Passage. Safe Passage works with the poorest at-risk children of families working in the Guatemala City garbage dump. Within a safe and caring environment, they provide a comprehensive and integrated program that fosters hope, good health, educational achievement, self-sufficiency, self-esteem and confidence. Their primary focus is on creating opportunities and dignity through the power of education. Interact is also involved in local fundraisers like wrapping books at Barnes and Noble for donations, selling Luna's Italian Ice, selling Fair-Trade, Organic coffee. Interact has also volunteered under a viaduct, serving breakfast to people in need.

COMMUNITY SERVICE COUNCIL

The Community Service Council was co-lead by seniors Lee Asahina, Lydia Cheng and Emily Wolcott. The group's biggest and most successful project was the annual Halloween Carnival at the McCarthy Campus for our Beginning and Lower School students. Through the Halloween Carnival, CSC raised $500 to benefit The Family Counseling Center's mental health programs for economically disadvantaged families and all the kids who attended the party had a blast!

Freshman Trip

From upper left across: Avy Ausbeck gives a snarl. Taylor Mullin and Sara Mann pose. Mr. Hayes and Mr. Wilson have a chug-off. Claire Freidman proves that she's precious. KJ Tua'one is impassioned. Chris Sundquist is the happiest kid on the sand dunes. Michele Lorusso sports his sand dunes style. Manon Gilmore, David Chardack, and Madeleine Strait are best friends. Carson Lyness blasts her favorite tunes, the High School Musical soundtrack. Brent Hood relaxes. Emma Naatz and Sydney Tatomer react to the news of a scandalous bus ride. A Gilbert twin and Rachel Snyder await the day's events. Christine Livsey follows in the cool footsteps of her brother.

In fall 2008, the freshman class went to Kanab in Southern Utah to bond as a grade and reinforce the material taught in Peter Hayes' biology class. The 4-day trip gave the opportunity for the newest additions to the high school to find new friends, discover who wears the most makeup, uncover hidden talents or idiosyncrasies of peers, and learn a whole bunch about their surroundings. Playing in the sand dunes has never been so fun!

From top left to right: Annie White shows off her pigtail., David Andrews and Jordan Ruga take a second from the day's preparation to smile. Maher Farrukh shows his thug side. Will Badenhause shows us how cute he can be. Stephanie Schott reflects on Rowmark. Zach Merrill thinks about dinner. Johnny Bebbington, Ben Harries, Brent Hood, Adam Klawe, and Michele Larusso own the sand dunes. A Gilbert twin hides in the shrubbery. Kyleene Johnson gives us a glamour shot. Nels Ballard relaxes after a tough day of plant finding.

CANAPALOOZA '08

Canapalooza '08 was RHSM's biggest school concert in years. The show, which kicks off the RHSM annual food drive, featured 15 student and faculty performances. The girls won the food drive competition over the boys by the slim margin of only sixty-seven pounds. In total, RHSM students gave over 6.5 tons of food to Crossroads Urban Center to help Salt Lake's hungry.

Event organisers Chandler Schlegel, Hannah Avrin, Lee Asahina, and Shelley Miller before the concert. Schlegel, Asahina, and Miller also performed.

Kyleene Johnson tunes her violin a few hours before an impressive performance.

Erin Lence delights the crowd with her rendition of Jamie Cullum's "All At Sea."

DEDICATION

Señor Burnett

This year, the Hallmark staff would like to recognize un profesor especial who has been at Rowland Hall for 12 years. In addition to producing well-rounded, articulate estudiantes de español, this teacher also works hard to free prisoners of conscience and raise money for a small Peruvian village. His class is a constant pachanga, especially if you can avoid, "¡Menos puntos!" On behalf of Amnesty International, Spanish Club, his Spanish students, and the Hallmark staff we would like to dedicate the 2009 yearbook to Señor Matt Burnett. Es la historia de su vida, Señor.

Melissa,

I can't believe we've come so far
You've always been my shining star

I've watched you work hard and excel
With talents that have served you well

Whether riding horses or in debate
Your passion is what makes you great

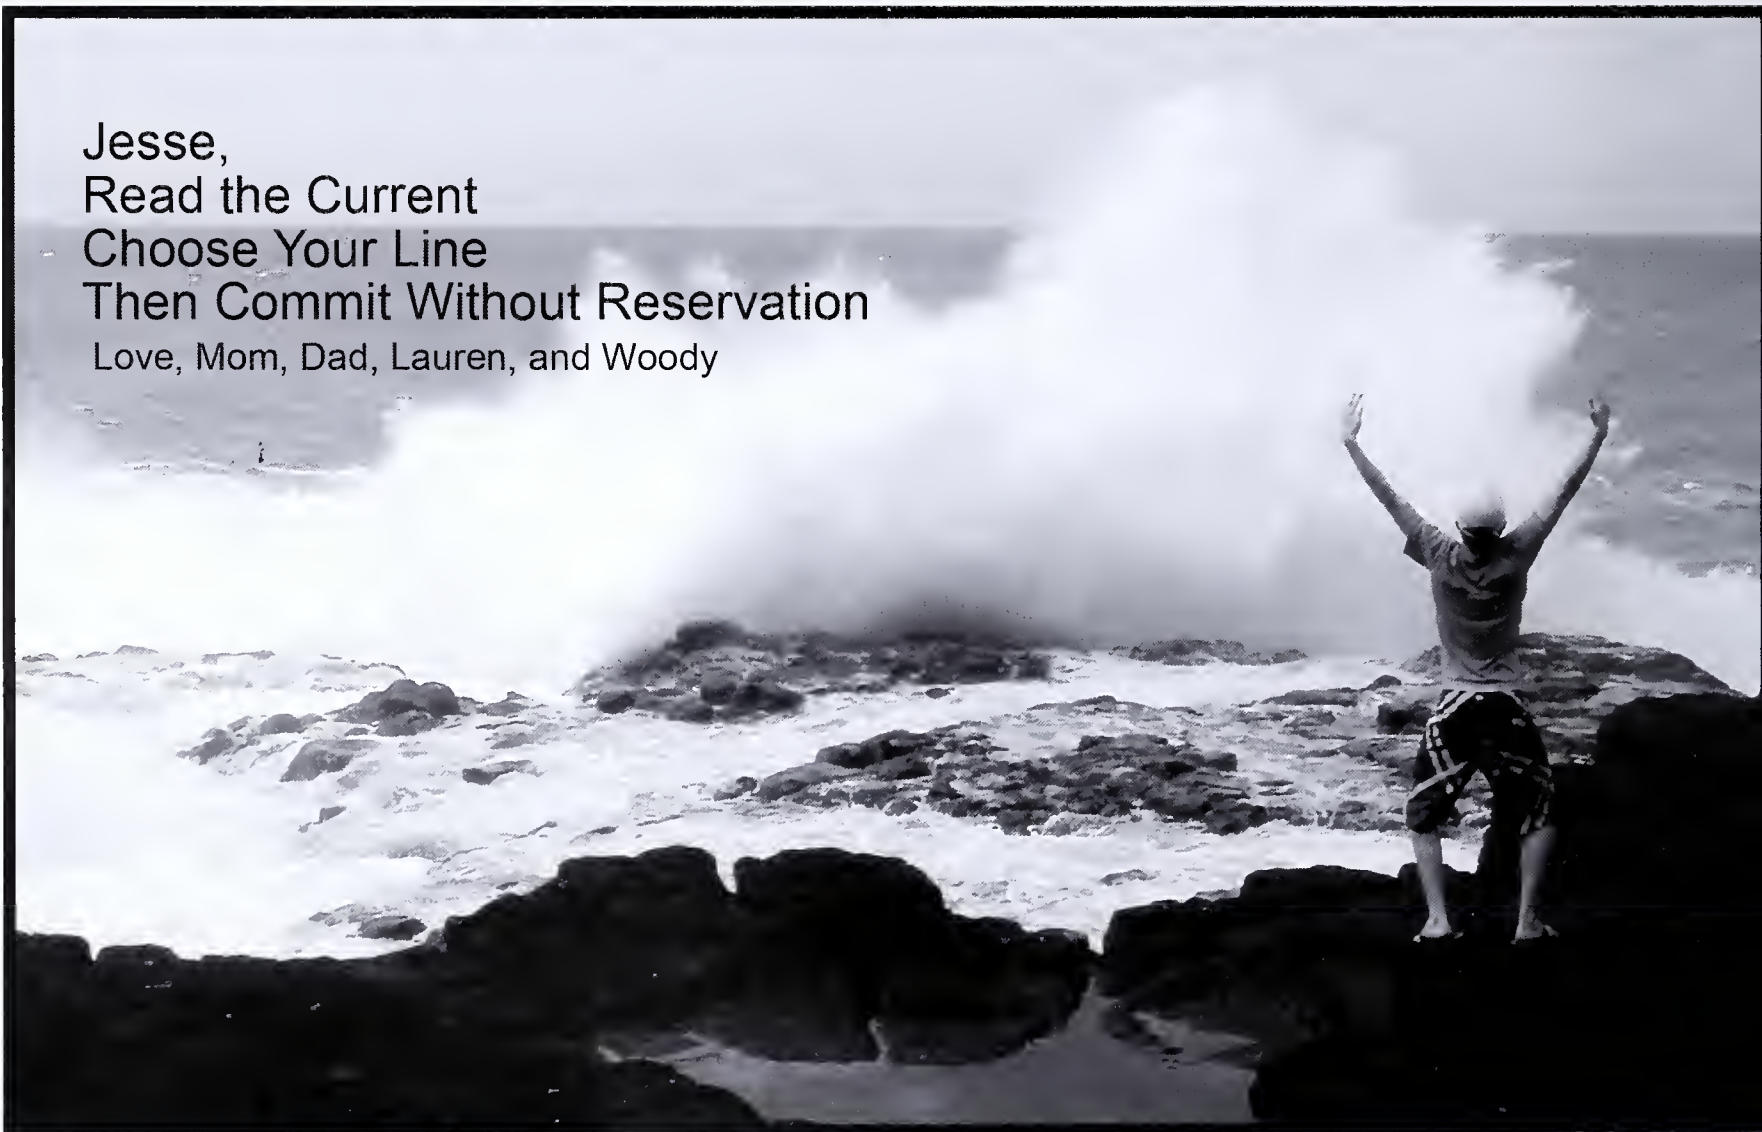

Soon you'll be off - out on your own
Into the world, the great unknown

Use your gifts so we may see
Just how great I know you'll be

Where has the time gone?
It doesn't seem that long ago since you were
climbing on the school
bus to go to Kindergarten.
It's not been easy moving around, but you've made some great friends along the way and hopefully many happy memories.

Good luck as you head off
to college and remember to phone home occasionally
as we will miss you!

Jared Benjamin Accettura Graduates!

Congratulations
from your supporting cast!

Once upon a time, in the Alaskan cold and wet City of Juneau, a bright and happy little girl came into this world, with a mind of her own. She has grown into an exceptionally smart, caring and beautiful lady, ready to take on the challenges of her time in a relentless pursuit of her dreams.

*Henriette: Words cannot express how proud Mom, Dad, Cecile, Rose, Tonette and Junior are of your brilliant accomplishments. Keep "shooting for the moon and if you miss, at least you will land among the stars". As your Kpèlè people in Guinea say: É WÈLI KA KOUO - WE LOVE YOU...
CONGRATULATIONS !*

Tomorrow is the first day of the rest of your life.

Carter,

We are so proud of your accomplishments as a lifer at Rowland Hall... great friendships, wonderful teachers, wins (and losses) on the court and the baseball field. Congratulations! You will be successful in the exciting times ahead of you. We love you very much.

Mom, Dad, Madeleine, Peter and Amber

The people who haven't met you yet don't know how lucky they will be.

But we do.

What Goes on

at Rowland Hall

Clockwise starting at top left: Blake Harries with younger brother Ben. Senior twins Sandrine and Mitchell Couldwell. Maddie Loughridge is held by her younger sister Anna. Ben Hannon and his younger brother Jackson. Adrienne Nash smiles with her younger sister Abby. Carter Haslam doesn't look so happy to be standing with his younger sister Maddy. Jared Accettura shows the love with younger sister Margot. Elizabeth Strait and younger sister Maddy stop for a quick picture in the hall between classes.

Weston Wiener and his younger brother Hans enjoy the outdoors.

Patrick Gilmore holds his baby sister Manon.

Senior Biographies

The 6th Grade class of 2015 did an excellent job on the biographies for the 2009 seniors this spring. It's a long standing tradition at Rowland Hall for the 6th Graders to remember the seniors and write their individual biographies.

Below: Carter Haslam and 6th grader Braden Lockwood make funny faces after the first interview.

In one of the most historic events in United States history, Senator Barack Obama becomes the first black president our nation has seen. People all over the world were as ecstatic as the Americans who had voted for Obama, as he came off as articulate, open-minded, and concerned for the interests of others. A change that was easily welcomed.

In a huge upset, Californians voted to implement Proposition 8, which inserted 14 words into the California constitution making gay marriage illegal. The push to invalidate advancement of gay rights was a setback for our nation. This was recognized by human and civil rights group, who went to court alleging that Prop 8 was unconstitutional. The ruling is undecided as of yet.

Infamous Senator Chris Buttars made headlines again by comparing the gay community to fundamentalist Muslims and asserting that they are "the biggest threat to our society." No one can be sure whether he acts out for publicity or whether he truly believes such absurd declarations.

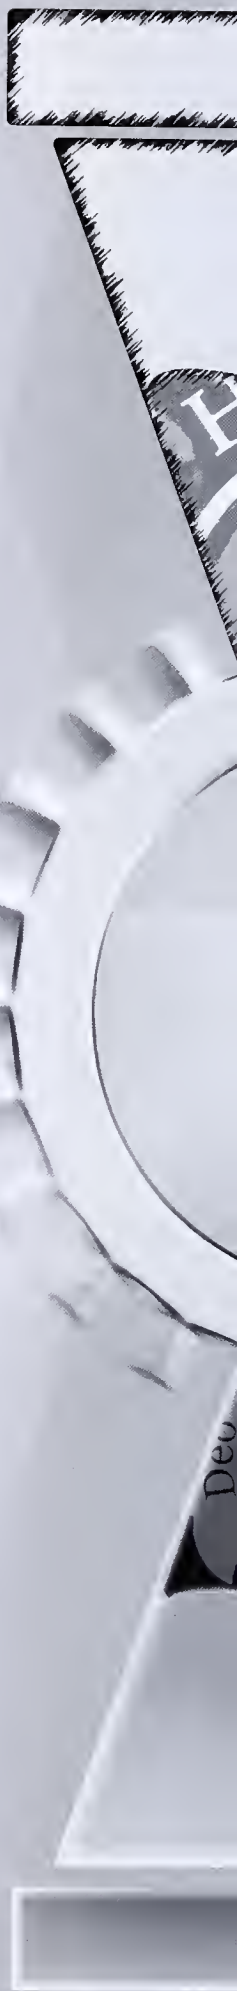

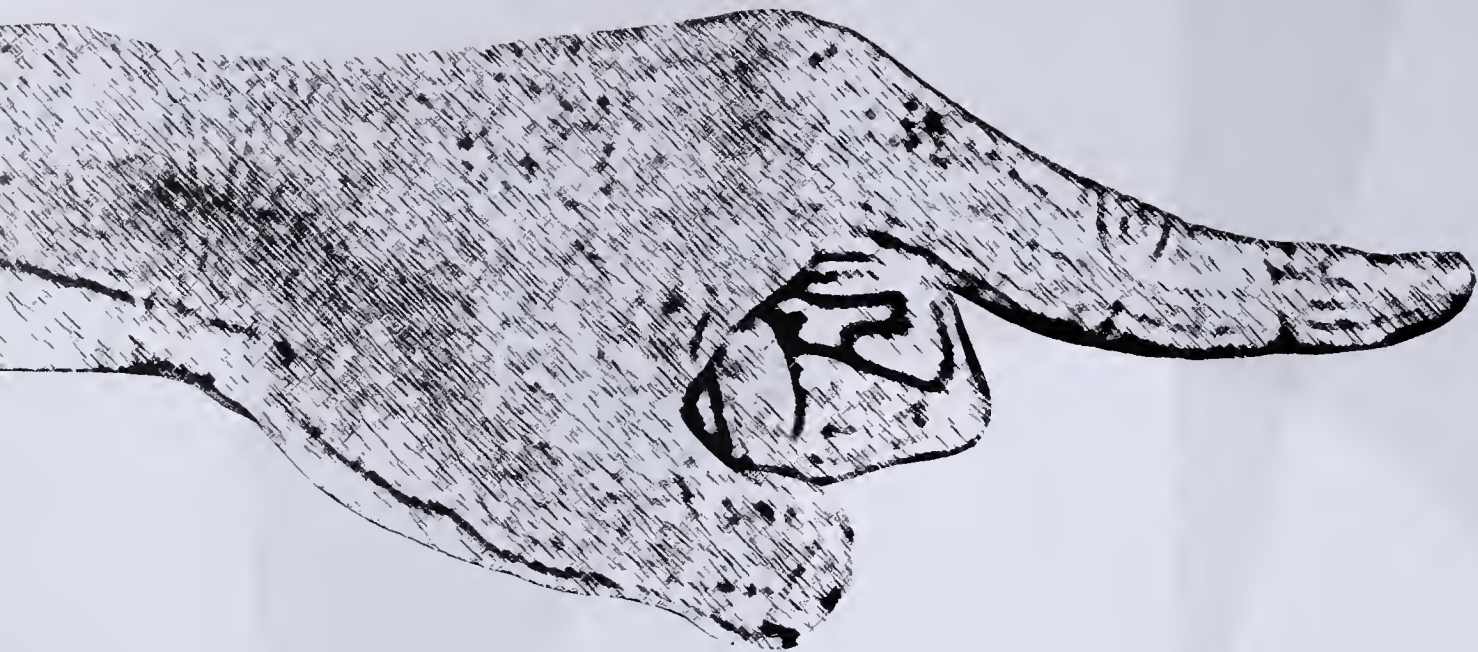

R&B/Pop singer Rihanna made the headlines this year after being brutally beaten by her boyfriend, R&B singer Chris Brown. Rihanna took Brown back, although many fans claimed to have "lost respect" for her due to this decision.

Farewell, Tony Larimer

On March 3rd, 2009, the Rowland Hall community lost a very great friend and teacher. Emmet "Tony" Larimer began at the school in 1958, and apart from a brief ten year absence, taught here until 1994. In his time at Rowland Hall, Tony served as English teacher, debate coach, theatre director, and advisor to the literary magazine and the yearbook. It is only fitting that we recognize a man who meant so much to the school as an educator, Chair of the Alumni Committee and as the Grinch. Thank you for all the memories Tony, you will be missed.

To-morrow, and to-morrow, and to-morrow,
Creeps in this petty pace from day to day,
To the last syllable of recorded time;
And all our yesterdays have lighted fools
The way to dusty death. Out, out, brief candle!
Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player,
That struts and frets his hour upon the stage,
And then is heard no more. It is a tale
Told by an idiot, full of sound and fury,
Signifying nothing.
